Many thousands of people who listened and watched the broadcast of the Convention were able to participate as well," said Dr. David Diamond, member of the Board of Trustees of Agudath Israel of America and Chairman of Major Events. "We are especially pleased that at last year's Motzoei Shabbos Convention Session, a proposal was made to undertake an effort to increase the prestige and remuneration of our rebbeim and moros. As a result, a new initiative began which is raising millions of dollars to help elevate the status of those who are so critical to the future of our community."

He concluded, "We invite everyone to make their reservations for this year's Convention as quickly as possible, as the rooms are going fast."
