

Agudath Israel Director Joins Philadelphia Rabbis for Meeting with Congressman Brendan Boyle

August 21, 2015

Democratic Congressman Brendan Boyle (PA- 13) meeting with Philadelphia-area Rabbis

This morning, Agudath Israel's Mid-Atlantic regional director, Rabbi Ariel Sadwin joined eight Philadelphia-area rabbis at a meeting with Congressman Brendan Boyle (PA-13) to discuss the JCPOA - Iran Nuclear Deal. The meeting, arranged by Rabbi Dovid Kushner, gave the rabbis a unique opportunity to express their concerns and alarm about the agreed-upon deal that is dominating the headlines ahead of the mid-September vote. The Democratic congressman recently returned from a bipartisan congressional visit to Israel and shared some highlights of his trip. Rep. Boyle confided to the group that he intends to publicize the direction he'll be taking on the issue in an Op-Ed in Sunday's Philadelphia Inquirer.
