

Virtual Conference: Halachic & Ethical Issues Facing Attorneys

February 4, 2021

The Commission on Torah Projects of Agudas Yisroel is delighted to present a special halachah conference series for attorneys and law students in our community. The first virtual conference will be held on Monday, February 15th, Presidents Day, 10:30 AM EST, - 1:00 PM EST, and will cover halachic and ethical issues facing attorneys.

The first session will address: “The Interface of Beis Din and the Legal Profession.” Introductions will be delivered by Chaim Gitelis, Esq. Gitelis Law Offices, and the presenters will be Rabbi Zev Cohen, Rav, Khal Adas Yeshurun, Rosh Kollel, Choshen Mishpot Kollel, Chicago, and Rabbi Ari Marburger, Rav, Khal Anshei Faraday, Lakewood.

The Q & A session, “Halacha & Hashkafa for the Modern-day Attorney,” will be moderated by Aron M. Zuckerman, Esq., Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP, and delivered by Rabbi Shraga Kallus, Rav, Khal Imrei Fi, Rosh Kollel, Machon Horaah L'Rabbonim Yerushalyim.

Dayan Aharon Dovid Dunner, Hisachdus Hakehillos, London, will deliver the keynote session: “Emes and the Practice of Law – A Captivating Overview & Essential Insights,” following an introduction by Eric R. Stern, Esq., Stern Law Group.

3 CLE credits will be available for eligible participants in this program. Click here to register for the conference.